PUBLIC INPUT SOUGHT FOR COUNTY MENTAL HEALTH PROGRAMS

Local Forums Held to Solicit Opinions for Mental Health Services Act

The San Diego County Health and Human Services Agency's Mental Health Services is hosting six regional community forums to elicit input from local residents about mental health programs for children, youth, adults and older adults throughout the county.

The California Mental Health Services Act (Proposition 63) requires community input to develop plans for the expansion of local mental health services throughout San Diego County. The forums are scheduled in different regions as a convenience to interested participants. The dates and locations are:

- March 10 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. – Ronald Reagan Community Center
195 E. Douglas Ave., El Cajon 92121
- March 15 4:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. – Hilltop Middle School
